Cole's Original Hot Blast

The valuable gas half of your fuel is all held in the stove by Cole's Patented air tight construction. Not a particle of the gas is allowed to escape up the chimney. It is then completely burned and utilized for heating by Cole's Fuel Saving Hot Blast Draft.

Beware of imitation Hot Blast Stoves which soon open up at the many joints allowing the gas to escape unused.

We guarantee every Cole's Original Hot Blast

- to save 1/2 the fuel over any bottom draft stove.
- to use less hard coal than any Base burner with same sized firepot.
- to remain air tight as long as used.
- Burns any fuel - Hard Coal, Soft Coal or Wood.

PLEASE TELL US, MR. HUGHES.

(Exchange.)
As you talk from day to day, Mr. Hughes,
We are reading what you say, Mr. Hughes;
We are carefully a-weighting,
Every word that you are saying,
As the president you're flaying, Mr. Hughes.

You're emitting lots of noise, Mr. Hughes;
We're afraid you've lost your poise, Mr. Hughes;
Malediction so terrific,
And your charges so prolific,
Should be rendered more specific, Mr. Hughes.

You say things most unkind, Mr. Hughes.
'Bout when Wilson changed his mind, Mr. Hughes;
'Spose you write us all a note,
Telling when you changed your coat,
So's to favor women's vote, Mr. Hughes.

You was governor of your state, Mr. Hughes;
Your repentance is too late, Mr. Hughes;
Did you not then put the ax
To the federal tax?
You should cover up your tracks, Mr. Hughes.

And the bill for two-cent fare, Mr. Hughes,
When you occupied that chair Mr. Hughes—
Did you sign that little measure,
And thus save the people treasure?
No, you vetoed it with pleasure, Mr. Hughes.

You are often heard to speak, Mr. Hughes,
Of our policy being weak, Mr. Hughes,
It is cheap to sing that song—
Say exactly what is wrong—
Tell us how YOU would be strong, Mr. Hughes.

Oh, you make an awful mouth, Mr. Hughes.
About our neighbor on the south, Mr. Hughes,
Will you tell us what you mean—
Would you have us intervene?
That would make a bloody scene, Mr. Hughes.

We have enemies Castilian, Mr. Hughes,
Who would fight us by the million, Mr. Hughes,
But an enemy far greater,
Is the lying agitator—
He's the vilest form of traitor, Mr. Hughes.

He regards you with affection, Mr. Hughes,
And will work for your election, Mr. Hughes.
War of conquest he is framing,
For this trouble he's to blame, an'—
He should hang as high as Haman, Mr. Hughes.

You have wept and you have wailed, Mr. Hughes,
That the Democrats have failed, Mr. Hughes.
We would know just how you feel,
If they give us a new deal,
Just what laws will you repeal, Mr. Hughes?

While you're speaking of 'free trade,' Mr. Hughes,
Don't call a spade a spade, Mr. Hughes,
Why not think you'd win applause,
If you'd say the tariff laws,
Should be back to where they was, Mr. Hughes?

Would you win the nation's thanks, Mr. Hughes,
By restoring to the banks, Mr. Hughes,
All the power and some more,
That they had in days of yore,
When your party had the floor, Mr. Hughes?

Will you dare to put the ban, Mr. Hughes,
On the Democratic plan, Mr. Hughes,
Of making armor plate,
And potassium nitrate,
In a place owned by the state, Mr. Hughes?

And "deserving Democrats," Mr. Hughes,
Won't you kick them in the shins, Mr. Hughes—
If this contest you have won,
Won't you have a lot of fun
In displacing every one, Mr. Hughes?

You orate like all creation, Mr. Hughes,
Of the "honor of our nation," Mr. Hughes,
Would you make her fight with
John or Kaiser William just for "honor"
And bring woe and grief upon her, Mr. Hughes?

Do you think you'd have been wiser, Mr. Hughes,
In 'handling' king or kaiser, Mr. Hughes?
Would Bernstorff have packed his trunk,
When the Lusitania sunk,
Or is your talk all bunk, Mr. Hughes?

There is wisdom in restraint, Mr. Hughes,
Though you may insist they ain't Mr. Hughes.
It is full as brave to labor,
To be peaceful with your neighbor,
As to stab him with a sabre, Mr. Hughes.

No more noble man, I'm thinkin', Mr. Hughes,
Since they killed th' immortal Lincoln, Mr. Hughes,
Than the one that's in that chair,
And if you should get in there,
You would rattle round for fair, Mr. Hughes.

RALEIGH NEWS LETTER.

(Special to the Hustler.)

Raleigh, Oct. 18.—This is Raleigh's busiest week—the week of the Great State Fair. Thousands of people from all over North Carolina are assembling here as usual, only a little more so this year, and the indications are for the biggest crowd and the greatest State Fair in a generation. This week marks the annual reunion of North Carolina folks. So many Tarheels never get together on any other occasion. They come "from Currituck to Cherokee," and thousands meet each other at the State fair each year who seldom, if ever, see each other at any other time. Hundreds and probably thousands come here the third week of every October largely for that purpose, for the meeting of old acquaintances and congenial friends is one of the real enjoyments of life and a good thing to indulge in.

Political Prospects—Register Now.
Or course there is a large proportion of politicians and near-politicians "among those present," and many more who, while not politicians in the common acceptance of that term, take a lively interest in politics in an effort to perpetuate the principles of the party with which they are aligned, in the interest of good government, and the election of capable and proper men to public office. I have talked with many of them, and it is putting it mildly to say that Hughes men are not numerous, and when you do find one he explains that the Candidate is being supported because he is the nominee of his party.

There's absolutely no enthusiasm that can be discovered in the Hughes contingent, and it does look today, three weeks before election day, that the National Republican ticket will run behind the Republican State ticket—which is a reversal of the order heretofore. This doesn't mean that Mr. Linney is expected to poll an unusually large vote for governor, because, the prospects are that he will not, and that Governor Bickett's majority will be a large one—certainly it will be a big one if all the Democrats vote, and thereby hangs this short tale:

The time is short in which you can register. SEE that your name is on the books. Don't take it for granted. Make it your special business to attend to this matter at once. The ballot of an unregistered voter will not be worth a cent to himself, his party or anybody else on election day.

Woodrow Wilson Day.
Chairman Warren, of the Democratic State headquarters here, is urging loyal party men to make October twenty-eight (Woodrow Wilson Day) a great day in every county in North Carolina, as it will be in every other State of the American Union. The speech which the President is to deliver that day at "Shadow Lawn" will be read at all the county seats by some local speaker, and the day is to be otherwise fittingly celebrated.

Governor Kitchin, Governor Craig, Robert N. Page, and other big guns, will be busy from now on, for Chairman Warren is pressing them into service for the balance of the campaign. Governor Bickett is already booked for every week-day till the day of election, and the misrepresentations of Republican speakers will be exposed all over the State. Then will come the refuge of Democratic votes.

Republicans Who Can't Support Mr. Hughes.

There has been a great deal of favorable comment on the "Charley McKesson Letter," in which that fluent and eloquent Republican "for thirty years" (as he assures us) announces that he is for President Wilson's re-election. McKesson gives some mighty good reasons why he prefers him to Hughes. Mr. McKesson is not alone in the attitude he takes with respect to the relative fitness of the two candidates for the greatest office within the gift of the American people. It is a long list that the names of prominent Republicans who will support Mr. Wilson this year makes—not because they have embraced the Democratic faith so much as because they are convinced that the re-election of the President will be best for the country—for its best interests and for the whole American people.

ARBOR DAY.

Arbor Day is only three weeks off, as it comes November 3rd this year. A special effort has been made to have the day appropriately celebrated all over the State and it is hoped that all the schools will observe it in some way. A new "Arbor and Bird Day Manual" was prepared by the State Geological and Economic Survey at the special request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and this was ready for the printer the beginning of August. For some unaccountable reason the printing of this Manual has been delayed to such an extent that it hardly seems possible to have it properly distributed before Arbor Day. This is a great misfortune, as the County Superintendents of Public Instruction throughout the State made an almost unanimous demand that these books be distributed this year earlier than was done last year so that the teachers would have plenty of time to teach the children their exercises. Instead of being earlier, the Manual will be much later, too late to be of any use whatever in preparing Arbor Day observances.

It will now be necessary for the teachers who are organizing Arbor Day exercises to use again the Manual for 1915. If additional copies of this are needed, they can no doubt be secured by applying to the County Superintendent or to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Raleigh.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, causes it to break up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.
